HIS "JOY RIDE" COMES TO GRIEF

Ray McLeer, Who Worked For Farmer Near Carthage, Arrested in Indianapolis Today.

ADMITS THEFT OF OUTFIT

Says he Met Boys With Horse and Buggy and They Deserted Him.

After dashing through East Tenth street with a five-year-old horse hitched to a red wheeled buggy, Ray McLeer, nineteen years old, who says he was born in Virginia, was arrested near Rural street, early today, by Walter Cox, patrolman, according to today's Indianapolis News.

McLeer admitted having used the National road as a speedway, driving the outfit from Knuightstown to this city. He also admitted having stolen the horse and buggy in Knuightstown. While Police Captain Crane was questioning McLeer as to his identity and what he was doing with the stolen outfit, he was notified by a member of the Horse Thief Detective Association in Knuightstown to be on the lookout for the horse and buggy. The association offered a reward of $100 for the recovery of the horse and buggy and the arrest of the thief.

The police were at first inclined to believe McLeer's story that he was a farmer's son, driving into the city to buy some tools for his father.

The fact that he had no lights on the buggy attracted the police. McLeer said he had grown tired of working for a farmer near Carthage, and made his way to Knuightstown. There he fell in with two other boys. McLeer told the police that the boys asked him to take a ride in the buggy, and after they had driven several miles toward Indianapolis deserted him.

McLeer says his mother died when he was born, and his father died when he was four years old. Since that time, he told the police, he has been traveling around the country. He was locked in the city prison for grand larceny. The horse and buggy were sent to a livery stable.

EUREKAS HERE TONIGHT

Milroy Basketball Team Will Tackle Local Independents.

The basketball game between the local Independents and the Eureka of Milroy will take place tonight instead of Friday as was announced yesterday. The game will be played in the Graham school "gym" and a large crowd is expected. The Eureka are playing a fast game and promise to give the Independents a battle. The Independents were unable to secure the "gym" for Friday night and in order to play this week it was necessary to set the game for Thursday. The game will start at 8 o'clock.

A CHIP ON ITS SHOULDER.

The Manilla independent basketball team challenges any five in the sixth district for the championship of the district. The Manilla aggregation is not at all chasty, but since it has not been defeated this year, it has some confidence in its ability to get by with the long end of the score. Address acceptances to Lew Lewis or Donald Inlow, Manilla.

I & C WINS IN DAMAGE SUIT

Jury Finds For Defendant in $15,000 Case.

A jury in the Marion county Superior court yesterday returned a verdict in favor of the defendant in the damage suit of John A. Bevis vs. The Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction Company. He was hit by one of the traction company's cars in New Bethel while driving along the highway in a one-horse spring wagon. The accident occurred September 1, 1910.

JURY FINDS THAT HOPKINS IS GUILTY

Attorneys For Man Who Shot Lee Somers Will Ask For New Trial Shortly.

GETS TERM OF 2 TO 14 YEARS

William Hopkins, age fifty-eight years, will have to serve a sentence of from two to fourteen years in the State penitentiary at Michigan City for shooting at Lee Somers, a neighbor with intent to commit manslaughter if a motion for a new trial is overruled and an appeal to a higher court fails.

The jury in the circuit court last night, after being out less than three hours, found Hopkins guilty and he was sentenced at once by Judge Blair. He will be compelled to remain in jail until a ruling on motion for a new trial is had. Hopkins' attorneys said that a motion would be filed in a few days. In case a new trial is granted, he may be released on bond.

The jury received the case at 6:20 o'clock last night and returned a verdict at nine. The shooting for which Hopkins was convicted occurred on a public highway near Somers' home last summer. The evidence tended to show it was the outgrowth of a quarrel over the location of a line fence. The trial lasted two days.

WOULD AMEND THE REGISTRATION LAWS

Senator Will A. Yarling of Shelbyville Proposes Additions to Make New Statute Better.

TO INCREASE ITS POPULARITY

Dissatisfaction regarding the registration law, not only in this county, but all over the state, has caused Senator Will A. Yarling, of Shelbyville, to turn his attentions to plans for amending the law at the next session of the state legislature, and he stated that he was already preparing some of the amendments he believes will not only make the law more popular, but more reasonable, says the Shelbyville Democrat.

He proposes to have the pay of the registration officers changed from $4 per day to $2 per day, making it the same as is received by the members of election boards.

He will also try by means of the amendments to eliminate some of the hardships which the law works in its present form. Chief among these will be a provision allowing a man to register by means of affidavits in case of sickness or any other cause that positively prevents him from making the trip to the registration place.

C. H. & D. Must Have Block Signal Installed From Indianapolis of Glenwood.

SAYS RAILWAY COMMISSION

An order issued yesterday by the railroad commission provides that the C. H. & D. railroad install block signals on the eastern half of its road, between Glenwood and Indianapolis, the signals to be in operation by August 1, 1913.

"It is further ordered," the commission declared, "that until said automatic block, so ordered above, is installed, that the manual block now in operation on the line of the said Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railway shall be so improved and changed as to afford head-on protection for trains operated on said road."

Fred Emberton, fireman on freight train No. 95, which figured in the C. H. & D. wreck November 13, testified before the Marion county coroner yesterday. Emberton told of the movements of the freight prior to the arrival of passenger No. 36, which plunged through an open switch into the freight.

Emberton's testimony was practically the same as that of other members of the crew. He was asked by the coroner if he heard Willis York, engineer, tell Carl Gross, flagman and head brakeman, to ride back on the engine when the freight took the siding, leaving the switch open behind it. Emberton said Gross was out ahead to flag No. 36 if it approached, and York said he told the brakeman to jump on the engine and ride back into the siding. Emberton says he did not hear York tell Gross this, but he said he heard York whistle Gross in after the train was on the siding. York is a brother of Mrs. U. G. Beaver, of this city.

Coroner Durham has been making an effort to fix definitely the position of every man of the freight crew at the time the switch was left open, as he expects to place the responsibility for the open switch and the wreck in a special finding which will accompany his verdict.

4 CANDIDATES FAIL TO COMPLY

Men on Prohibition Ticket Neglect to File Itemized Statement of Campaign Expenses.

TIME LIMIT EXPIRES TODAY

Question Whether Law Intends Those Spending Nothing Should Make an Accounting.

Today was the last day, according to the law, for candidates to file an itemized statement of their expenses during their campaign for office. Every candidate for offices in Rush county, with the exception of four, had filed statements with the clerk of the circuit court up until this afternoon.

The four which had neglected to make an itemized showing were all on the Prohibition ticket: John W. Zike, candidate for auditor; J. Walter Northam, for treasurer; Peter Nickles, for sheriff and Edwards Woods, for surveyor.

It is not likely that any one of these candidates expended any money during their campaign for election. None of the other candidates on the Prohibition ticket, who has filed his statement, spent any money. There is a question in the minds of many lawyers whether or not it is the intent of the law that a candidate who spends nothing should file any statement. Failure to comply with the law makes the candidate liable to a fine of not less than $10 or more than $50.

Candidates for congress, prosecutor and joint senator are not expected to file their campaign statement only in the county in which they live. However several of the candidates for these three offices who do not live in Rush county, filed a statement here.

Chauncey Duncan of Greenfield, Republican candidate for joint senator, was one of this class. Although he lives in Hancock county he filed a statement with Clerk Taylor yesterday, showing that he had spent $96.90 in the campaign, $25 of which was contributed to the Hancock county central committee. The remainder was for the usual expenses.

William K. Stoops of Connersville, Mr. Duncan's Bull Moose opponent, according to an expense statement filed here yesterday, expended $105.30. He gave $25 to the Fayette county committee and spent the rest for the usual expenses.

SENATE MAY HOLD IT UP

Confirmation of Lee Nixon's Appointment by Taft Uncertain.

The name of Lee Nixon, a former Carthage boy, has been sent to the senate by Pres. Taft for postmaster of San Juan, Porto Rico, but according to reports from Washington today there is no certainty that his nomination will be confirmed by the senate which is about equally divided politically. Nixon is named to succeed Walter K. Landis, brother of Fred Landis. Walter Landis was dismissed by cable the day after Fred Landis made his Bull Moose speech at the Progressive state convention.

IS ARRESTED ON WIFE'S COMPLAINT

Howard Glore Charged With Assault And Battery—Will End in Juvenile Court.

NOT SUPPORTING FAMILY

Howard Glore of North Sexton street was arrested late yesterday afternoon by policeman Wolters, on an affidavit filed by Mrs. Glore in Squire Kratzer's court. Glore was charged with assault and battery. Mrs. Glore alleged that he had struck her. The case was to have been tried this afternoon but was dismissed after an investigation.

Squire Kratzer found that Glore was not supporting his wife and child. The child is from an Orphans' home and instead of trying Glore, Squire Kratzer will file a charge against him in juvenile court and send the child back to the home. It is understood that the Glores' domestic relation have not been the best in the world of late and the charges against him will state that he is not a fit person to have the care of the child.

$1,200 DAMAGE SUIT IN CIRCUIT COURT

Case is Outgrowth of Collision Between Frank Wilson's Horse and E. A. Frazee's Auto.

ON HALLOWE'EN NIGHT, 1911

The case of Frank Wilson, who is suing Edward Frazee, a high school student and son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Frazee of East Sixth street, formerly of Orange, for $1,200 because of injuries sustained to his horse in a collision with an automobile, driven by the defendant, in North Main street, between Fourth and Fifth, Halloween night, 1911, was begun in the circuit court about noon today after the greater part of the morning had been spent in obtaining a jury.

The plaintiff was among the first witnesses. He said the horses was worth $1,400 before the accident but that she was not worth more than $200 now because of the accident. He said she had been incapacitated for racing and that she was nervous and excitable, whereas she has been gentle before the mishap.

Expert horsemen testified for the plaintiff this afternoon that the mare was worth from $1,200 to $1,500. On cross-examination the witnesses admitted that she would be worth nothing as a racer if she could not go better than 2:29.

CONTRIBUTIONS COME SLOWLY

Little and Big Friends Alike of Santa Are Asked to Help Unfortunates Early.

PALACE BENEFIT SHOW TO HELP

Boy May Win Football and Girl a Doll by Selling The Most Tickets to It.

Not enough funds were received into the Daily Republican Santa Claus fund today to warrant the publication. Friends of the fund are requested to contribute as early as they can so as to insure the success of the effort to make the unfortunate children of Rushville happy Christmas day.

The benefit show to be given by the Palace theater is taking on big proportions and promises to net a good sum for the fund. A number of children have already called for bunches of tickets to sell, and it is likely that a great many more will want tickets as soon as they learn the opportunity that is afforded them.

The boy under fourteen years of age who sells the most tickets to the benefit will receive a football, a real football which can be kicked and cuffed to the delight of the boy who is industrious and zealous enough in his efforts to excell all the other boys who will sell tickets. In addition to the prize that is offered, a free ticket is given for every ten that are sold. The football is donated by the Ninety-Nine Cent store.

And there's a treat in store for the girls under fourteen years of age, too. The girl who sells the greatest number of tickets to the Palace benefit show next Monday night will receive as a prize a beautiful doll—worth $2.65.

The little doll has eyes that will close, real hair, joints that will bend as naturally as a human's and a face that is almost as expressive as an infant's. The doll is dressed in the latest fashion and will be the idol of the girl's heart that wins it. The doll is donated by Vigan's Variety store.

Other benefits for the fund are contemplated and they will likely be announced in a few days. In the meantime the little friends of Santa Claus who will have a happy Christmas are urged to add their sum, no matter how small, to the fund that will make a merry Christmas for the poor little folks.

GIVEN LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Martinsville Pastor Will Conduct Christian Church Campaign.

The Rev. C. W. Canble, pastor of the Martinsville Christian church, has been granted a leave of absence to carry on the campaign to raise $5,000 among the Christian churches of Indiana in order to get a similar amount from M. T. Reeves, a retired manufacturer of Columbus. Mr. Reeves agreed to give $5,000 for State evangelistic work if the churches would donate an equal sum. The campaign will not be started until the first of February.

CHANGE OF VENUE ASKED.

A motion for a change of venue was filed by the defendant in the circuit court today in the case of William E. Inlow against John G. Lewis and William Lewis, on a note, in which $750 was demanded, and for attachment and garnishment.

ness that McNamara signed all the checks, and the witness countersigned them.

Sometimes, after making contradictory statements on cross-examination, the witness when these discrepancies were called to his attention, explained that in the second statement that he wished to correct what he had first said. Under the rapid-fire cross-questioning of United States Attorney Miller, Ryan frequently made replies that were not responsive to the questions, and in numerous instances it was only after the court told him to make direct responses that he did make responsive answers.

Parisian Ivory Ideal for Gifts

Nothing in recent years has met with such rapidly increasing favor as Parisian ivory. With all the artistic qualities of the fast-disappearing tusk ivory, yet decidedly superior in several ways, it lends itself admirably to the making of beautiful gift things. AMUSEMENTS

The Princess will show for the first picture tonight a Lubin drama, "The Doctor's Debt." It is a beautiful picture telling a story that will appeal to all. The scenes are laid along the sea coast. The other picture is an Edison drama, "Olster Joe." Both are said to be exceptionally good pictures.

The fifth of the series of the Young Wild West weeklies will be shown tonight at the Palace theater. It is entitled "Young Wild West's Mix-up," or "The Silver Mine Dispute." One of this series is dramatized and reproduced by the Nestor film company every week, and one will be seen at this theater every week. Marion Leonard will appear in a Rex drama, the other picture on the program.

In "Bunt Pulls the Strings," which the Messrs. Shubert and William A. Brady announce for the first presentation at the Connersville Auditorium, Friday evening, December 6, Graham Moffat, the author, has written what critics, managers and theater-goers of London, New York and Chicago have unanimously pronounced the greatest character comedy ever given to the stage. It is full of life, while the atmosphere is so real, so subtle and so pungent with color, character and force, that the whole seems more like a bit of real life than the artistic creation of a playwright's brain. "Bunt" is a charming piece of characterwork, absolutely clean, light, vivacious and fascinating. The dressing of the play is of the period of 1860 and accurate to the minutest detail, while the superb cast of important players musters a roll of the best talented artists to be found in the leading theaters of Edinburgh and Glasgow.

FRIEGHT KILLS HORSES.

Geensburg News: Two horses, an old one and a young colt, were killed by Michigan division freight trains sometime last night while passing through Sandusky. Jacob Staniford, of that place, the owner, had turned the animals loose to graze and neglected to carral or tie them. They strayed onto the railroad track and a south bound freight killed the older one and a freight north bound meted out death to the other. The loss will be several hundred dollars.

ANOTHER CONVICTION IN OHIO BRIBE CASES

State Senator Cetone the Latest Example.

Columbus, O., Dec. 5.—State Senator George K. Cetone of Dayton, was found guilty last night on a charge of accepting a $200 bribe from a Burns detective posing as a lobbyist before the general assembly in the spring of 1911.

He is the third senator to be convicted in the assembly bribery cases. Two representatives and the senate sergeant-at-arms have been convicted heretofore.

The measure involved was the Cetone-Whittmore insurance bill, and the state charged that Cetone took the bribe to get the bill out of committee. As in other legislative corruption cases, the state successfully introduced dictograph testimony.

New Use For "Literature."

New York, Dec. 5.—Much "flowery" literature written by Julian Hawthorne in connection with the promotion of mining properties in the Temagami and Cobalt districts has been introduced in evidence by the government at the trial of Mr. Hawthorne and his three associates who are charged with using the mails to defraud.

Japanese Cabinet Crisis.

Tokio, Dec. 5.—Premier Saionji and the other members of the Japanese cabinet has resigned as a result of the crisis brought about by the difficulty of finding a successor as war minister to Lieutenant General Uyeheira.

The automatic electric incubator is now hatching chicks.

NO STORY TODAY.

It was impossible to print the regular installment of the serial story, "The Root of Evil," in the Daily Republican because of the lack of space due to the rush of holiday advertising.

NOT CRAZY ENOUGH.

Muncie Press: The Indianapolis Star says that Schrank, who tried to assassinate Colonel Roosevelt during the campaign, and has been pronounced insane, was moved to his deed, nevertheless, by reading newspapers which attacked Roosevelt. The only reason he did not shoot President Taft, instead, evidently, is that he was not quite crazy enough to read the Star.

BEV'S STYLE.

Muncie Press: It has pleased Senator Beveridge frequently during the past four years to talk of the "repudiation" of James E. Watson by the people of Indiana at the election of 1904. At the election of 1912 Senator Beveridge got a little less than one-half as many votes as Mr. Watson for the same office four years before.

GETTING EVEN

Russia Prepared to Make Germany Regret Its Attitude.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 5.—The Russian press, in commenting on the recent speech of Dr. Von Bethman-Holweg in the reichstag, takes the view that the "rattling of the German sword" was discounted by the chancellor's reservations concerning the circumstances under which Germany would support Austria by force of arms. The Novoe Vremya says in referring to the Austrian acquisition of Bosnia and Herzegovina, "history repeats itself, but it is not so easy now to force Russian diplomacy into a faint-hearted retreat. Such intimidation frightens nobody. Meanwhile prudence demands the immediate withdrawal of the vast Russian deposits in German banks."

Dead Now Number Eleven.

Zanesville, O., Dec. 5.—With the death of Wilbur Ludwig, Jacob Burky and Mrs. Nellie Taylor, the toll of the Pennsylvania railway collision between passenger trains near Dresden was increased to eleven. James Bryant of Lancaster, engineer, is in the hospital here, so badly hurt he may die.

Here's Where the Fun Comes In

A woman seeking official action by the Department of Justice on a question in which she was interested became considerably confused by the frank envelope in which she received a communication from the department, according to a letter from her today. The warning, "Penalty for private use, $300," must have given her an unenviable impression. She wrote:

"I see from the envelope in which you answered my letter that you want $300 for private use. I cannot supply that large amount, but might raise $150"

Extra clerk—"We have them by the truck loads."

Extra—"Break? (look of contempt that would put Sam Welliver to shame) Why this is the original unbreakable doll store. We had them here before they began to break dolls. The kind we have won't even break their legs."

"Some dolls our contemporaries are showing perfectly are the rottenest, punkest lot of sawdust, linen, leather and head material ever thrown together. You can tear them up with a mean glance. Break? They are broke at the sight of a nickel."

"But not our dolls. We have the original. As it comes to me from the main ging who owns this place you can slap their heads up against a brick wall and never phase their skulls. AN IMPROVED ORDER.

Muncie Press: The Indiana Bull Moose bosses give it out that they will not stand for Teddy for the nomination in 1916, but they will boost Beveridge. At Gossip's Own Door.

At last something tangible that can be laid at gossip's own door has happened. There has always been general sentiment prevailing that most gossip was injurious, but it has never been exemplified with such striking force as by the murder at Logansport this week.

Mrs. Mary Cople made a disparaging remark concerning Mrs. Elizabeth Clark-Lang, a bride of a day at the time, in the presence of Miss Carrie Zimmerman. Straightway Miss Zimmerman "peddled" the observations of Mrs. Cople to Mrs. Lang. Before she had heard all of the story, Mrs. Lang excused herself, took a revolver from a dresser drawer and proceeded to the home of Mrs. Cople, shooting her dead as she stood on the threshold of her own home.

Without Miss Zimmerman's "kindly" interest in the affairs of the new bride the tragedy would likely not have been enacted. Yet every day in every small town, as well as city, it is a part of the routine of the type of person of which Miss Zimmerman is the representative to carry tales—evils tales generally—about their neighbors.

Gossip is the sneaking reptile of decent and organized society. It has undermined the home life of many happy families and it has reduced bright and glorious futures to the blackest dissonance. Gossip always was an evil-doer; it will ever be. In the parlance of the gossip-monger, it is not gossip unless it assails the chastity of some pure woman or the reputation of respectable man.

Gossip scarcely ever, if ever, was accused of being the direct or even indirect cause for a crime. Miss Zimmerman, the go-between, was dragged into court, according to dispatches, and directly charged with being the immediate cause of the tragedy.

It was the fear that the wagging tongues of gossip would cause the affections of her husband for a day only to wane that prompted Mrs. Lang to take summary action. Mrs. Lang's indictment of gossip-mongers is severe enough:

"And from that time I didn't care much for life. Then a few months ago I met Joe Lang. He was so good to me, so kind and helpful that I became infatuated with him and when he asked me to marry him I could scarcely wait for the wedding day to come.

"I feared all the time that stories would be carried to my husband which would make him change his mind and maybe not marry me, and so I kept with him almost constantly and warded him away from people who might be my enemies and fill his ears with stories about me.

"Then, when we were married, I thought I would treat everybody right and maybe they would not try to degrade me to him. I invited Mrs. Cople to my house for that reason, just to try and be friends with her. She came, too, and then, when Miss Zimmerman came and told me what she was saying, I saw in a flash that others would be talking about me, how ugly I am and how he might have won a better woman than me.

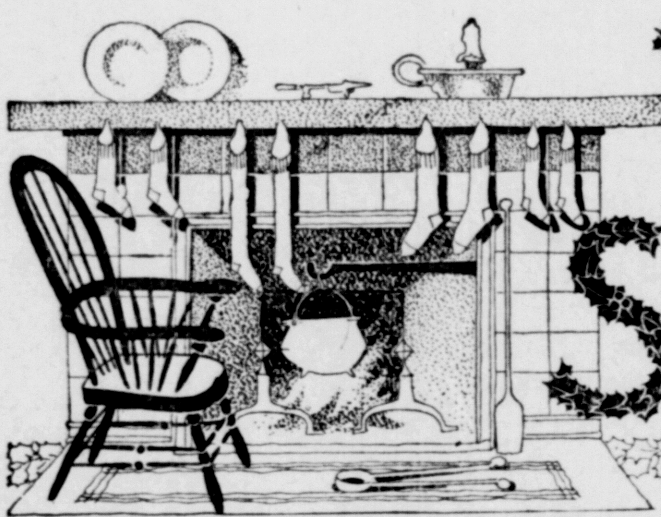

"The thought that these stories on every one's tongue might turn Joe from me made me crazy and in a passion I took the gun and went to Mrs. Cople's house and shot her. I didn't see her children stand by her. I didn't hear my father call to me. I could not see anything nor hear anything but that woman who had talked about me.

"I have had to rear myself almost. My mother and father separated when I was small and my father kept us children. A man can't rear daughters. I was headstrong, but a few years ago I met a man I wanted to marry and my father prevented it, and after that I paid scant attention to my father. Then when I met Joe Lang I wanted to wipe out the past. Right now I feel sorrier for Joe Lang than I do for myself, for he is not deserving of having this trouble and disgrace."

HIS "JOY RIDE"
COMES TO GRIEF

Ray McLeer, Who Worked For Farmer Near Carthage, Arrested in Indianapolis Today.

ADMITS THEFT OF OUTFIT

Says he Met Boys With Horse and Buggy and They Deserted Him.

After dashing through East Tenth street with a five-year-old horse hitched to a red wheeled buggy, Ray McLeer, nineteen years old, who says he was born in Virginia, was arrested near Rural street, early today, by Walter Cox, patrolman, according to today's Indianapolis News.

McLeer admitted having used the National road as a speedway, driving the outfit from Knightstown to this city. He also admitted having stolen the horse and buggy in Knightstown.

While Police Captain Crane was questioning McLeer as to his identity and what he was doing with the stolen outfit, he was notified by a member of the Horse Thief Detective Association in Knightstown to be on the lookout for the horse and buggy. The association offered a reward of $100 for the recovery of the horse and buggy and the arrest of the thief.

The police were at first inclined to believe McLeer's story that he was a farmer's son, driving into the city to buy some tools for his father.

The fact that he had no lights on the buggy attracted the police. McLeer said he had grown tired of working for a farmer near Carthage, and made his way to Knightstown. There he fell in with two other boys. McLeer told the police that the boys asked him to take a ride in the buggy, and after they had driven several miles toward Indianapolis deserted him.

McLeer says his mother died when he was born, and his father died when he was four years old. Since that time, he told the police, he has been traveling around the country. He was locked in the city prison for grand larceny. The horse and buggy were sent to a livery stable.

Milroy Basketball Team Will Tackle Local Independents.

The basketball game between the local Independents and the Eurekas of Milroy will take place tonight instead of Friday as was announced yesterday. The game will be played in the Graham school "gym" and a large crowd is expected. The Eurekas are playing a fast game and promise to give the Independents a battle. The Independents were unable to secure the "gym" for Friday night and in order to play this week it was necessary to set the game for Thursday. The game will start at 8 o'clock.

Jury Finds For Defendant in $15,000 Case.

A jury in the Marion county Superior court yesterday returned a verdict in favor of the defendant in the damage suit of John A. Bevis vs. The Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction Company. He was hit by one of the traction company's cars in New Bethel while driving along the highway in a one-horse spring wagon. The accident occurred September 1, 1910.

JURY FINDS THAT
HOPKINS IS GUILTY

Attorneys For Man Who Shot Lee Somers Will Ask For New Trial Shortly.

William Hopkins, age fifty-eight years, will have to serve a sentence of from two to fourteen years in the State penitentiary at Michigan City for shooting at Lee Somers, a neighbor with intent to commit manslaughter if a motion for a new trial is overruled and an appeal to a higher court fails.

The jury in the circuit court last night, after being out less than three hours, found Hopkins guilty and he was sentenced at once by Judge Blair. He will be compelled to remain in jail until a ruling on motion for a new trial is had. Hopkins' attorneys said that a motion would be filed in a few days. In case a new trial is granted, he may be released on bond.

The jury received the case at 6:20 o'clock last night and returned a verdict at nine. The shooting for which Hopkins was convicted occurred on a public highway near Somers' home last summer. The evidence tended to show it was the outgrowth of a quarrel over the location of a line fence. The trial lasted two days.

WOULD AMEND THE REGISTRATION LAWS

TO INCREASE ITS POPULARITY

Dissatisfaction regarding the registration law, not only in this county, but all over the state, has caused Senator Will A. Yarling, of Shelbyville to turn his attentions to plans for amending the law at the next session of the state legislature, and he stated that he was already preparing some of the amendments he believes will not only make the law more popular, but more reasonable, says the Shelbyville Democrat.

He proposes to have the pay of the registration officers changed from $1 per day to $2 per day, making it the same as is received by the members of election boards.

He will also try by means of the amendments to eliminate some of the hardships which the law works in its present form. Chief among these will be a provision allowing a man to register by means of affidavits in case of sickness or any other cause that positively prevents him from making the trip to the registration place.

An order issued yesterday by the railroad commission provides that the C. H. & D. railroad install block signals on the eastern half of its road, between Glenwood and Indianapolis, the signals to be in operation by August 1, 1913.

"It is further ordered," the commission declared, "that until said automatic block, so ordered above, is installed, that the manual block now in operation on the line of the said Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railway shall be so improved and changed as to afford head-on protection for trains operated on said road."

Fred Emberton, fireman on freight train No. 95, which figured in the C. H. & D. wreck November 13, testified before the Marion county coroner yesterday. Emberton told of the movements of the freight prior to the arrival of passenger No. 36, which plunged through an open switch into the freight.

Emberton's testimony was practically the same as that of other members of the crew. He was asked by the coroner if he heard Willis York, engineer, tell Carl Gross, flagman and head brakeman, to ride back on the engine when the freight took the siding, leaving the switch open behind it. Emberton said Gross was out ahead to flag No. 36 if it approached, and York said he told the brakeman to jump on the engine and ride back into the siding. Emberton says he did not hear York tell Gross this, but he said he heard York whistle Gross in after the train was on the siding. York is a brother of Mrs. U. G. Beaver, of this city.

Coroner Durham has been making an effort to fix definitely the position of every man of the freight crew at the time the switch was left open, as he expects to place the responsibility for the open switch and the wreck in a special finding which will accompany his verdict.

Those present to enjoy the fine dinner, were Mr. Archibald, Mr. and Mrs. Birchans of Indianapolis, Miss Kinsley, Mrs. Farley and Mr. Adams of Shelbyville and Mr. and Mrs. Dewester and their daughter Grace of Rushville. Three of them are teachers for the Deaf School. They returned home in the evening.

IN AGAIN, OUT AGAIN.
Leslie F. Pope, the young New Palestine business man, was arrested again Monday on a charge of forgery, and was placed in jail in default of bail, says the Greenfield Reporter.
Mr. Pope now has five charges of forgery resting against him in this county. He had furnished bond in the first four cases, amounting in all to $3,200, but has not furnished bond in this last case. He is now in jail. He has been arrested four times and released on bond three times.

4 CANDIDATES

Men on Prohibition Ticket Neglect to File Itemized Statement of Campaign Expenses.

TIME LIMIT EXPIRES TODAY

Today was the last day, according to the law, for candidates to file an itemized statement of their expenses during their campaign for office. Every candidate for offices in Rush county, with the exception of four, had filed statements with the clerk of the circuit court up until this afternoon.

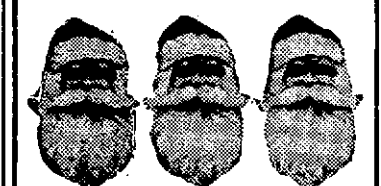

The four which had neglected to make an itemized showing were all on the Prohibition ticket: John W. Zike, candidate for auditor; J. Walter Northam, for treasurer; Peter Nickles, for sheriff and Edwards Woods, for surveyor.

It is not likely that any one of these candidates expended any money during their campaign for election. None of the other candidates on the Prohibition ticket, who has filed his statement, spent any money. There is a question in the minds of many lawyers whether or not it is the intent of the law that a candidate who spends nothing should file any statement. Failure to comply with the law makes the candidate liable to a fine of not less than $10 or more than $50.

Candidates for congress, prosecutor and joint senator are not expected to file their campaign statement only in the county in which they live. However several of the candidates for these three offices who do not live in Rush county, filed a statement here.

Chauncey Duncanson of Greenfield, Republican candidate for joint senator, was one of this class. Although he lives in Hancock county he filed a statement with Clerk Taylor yesterday, showing that he had spent $96.90 in the campaign, $25 of which was contributed to the Hancock county central committee. The remainder was for the usual expenses.

William K. Stoops of Connersville, Mr. Duncanson's Bull Moose opponent, according to an expense statement filed here yesterday, expended $105.30. He gave $25 to the Fayette county committee and spent the rest for the usual expenses.

NOT SUPPORTING FAMILY

Howard Glore of North Sexton street was arrested late yesterday afternoon by policeman Wolters, on an affidavit filed by Mrs. Glore in Squire Kratzer's court. Glore was charged with assault and battery. Mrs. Glore alleged that he had struck her. The case was to have been tried this afternoon but was dismissed after an investigation.

Squire Kratzer found that Glore was not supporting his wife and child. The child is from an Orphan's home and instead of trying Glore, Squire Kratzer will file a charge against him in juvenile court and send the child back to the home. It is understood that the Glores' domestic relation have not been the best in the world of late and the charges against him will state that he is not a fit person to have the care of the child.

$1,200 DAMAGE SUIT
IN CIRCUIT COURT

The case of Frank Wilson, who is suing Edward Frazee, a high school student and son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Frazee of East Sixth street, formerly of Orange, for $1,200 because of injuries sustained to his horse in a collision with an automobile, driven by the defendant, in North Main street, between Fourth and Fifth, Halloween night, 1911, was begun in the circuit court about noon today after the greater part of the morning had been spent in obtaining a jury.

The plaintiff was among the first witnesses. He said the horses were worth $1,400 before the accident but that she was not worth more than $200 now because of the accident. He said she had been incapacitated for racing and that she was nervous and excitable, whereas she has been gentle before the mishap.

Expert horsemen testified for the plaintiff this afternoon that the mare was worth from $1,200 to $1,500. On cross-examination the witnesses admitted that she would be worth nothing as a racer if she could not go better than 2:29.

Little and Big Friends Alike of Santa Are Asked to Help Unfortunates Early.

PALACE BENEFIT SHOW TO HELP

Boy May Win Football and Girl a Doll by Selling The Most Tickets to It.

Not enough funds were received into the Daily Republican Santa Claus fund today to warrant their publication. Friends of the fund are requested to contribute as early as they can so as to insure the success of the effort to make the unfortunate children of Rushville happy Christmas day.

The benefit show to be given by the Palace theater is taking on big proportions and promises to net a good sum for the fund. A number of children have already called for bunches of tickets to sell, and it is likely that a great many more will want tickets as soon as they learn the opportunity that is afforded them.

The boy under fourteen years of age who sells the most tickets to the benefit will receive a football, a real football which can be kicked and cuffed to the delight of the boy who is industrious and zealous enough in his efforts to excel all the other boys who will sell tickets. In addition to the prize that is offered, a free ticket is given for every ten that are sold. The football is donated by the Ninety-Nine Cent store.

And there's a treat in store for the girls under fourteen years of age, too. The girl who sells the greatest number of tickets to the Palace benefit show next Monday night will receive as a prize a beautiful doll—worth $2.65.

The little doll has eyes that will close, real hair, joints that will bend as naturally as a human's and a face that is almost as expressive as an infant's. The doll is dressed in the latest fashion and will be the idol of the girl's heart that wins it. The doll is donated by Vignar's Variety store.

Other benefits for the fund are contemplated and they will likely be announced in a few days. In the meantime the little friends of Santa Claus who will have a happy Christmas are urged to add their sum, no matter how small, to the fund that will make a merry Christmas for the poor little folks.

GIVEN LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Martinsville Pastor Will Conduct Christian Church Campaign.

The Rev. C. W. Cauble, pastor of the Martinsville Christian church, has been granted a leave of absence to carry on the campaign to raise $5,000 among the Christian churches of Indiana in order to get a similar amount from M. T. Reeves, a retired manufacturer of Columbus. Mr. Reeves agreed to give $5,000 for State evangelistic work if the churches would donate an equal sum. The campaign will not be started until the first of February.

CHANGE OF VENUE ASKED.

A motion for a change of venue was filed by the defendant in the circuit court today in the case of William E. Inlow against John G. Lewis and William Lewis, on a note, in which $750 was demanded, and for attachment and garnishment.

At Gossip's Own Door.

At last something tangible that can be laid at gossip's own door has happened. There has always been general sentiment prevailing that most gossip was injurious, but it has never been exemplified with such striking force as by the murder at Logansport this week.

Mrs. Mary Copple made a disparaging remark concerning Mrs. Elizabeth Clark-Lang, a bride of a day at the time, in the presence of Miss Carrie Zimmerman. Straightway Miss Zimmerman "peddled" the observations of Mrs. Copple to Mrs. Lang. Before she had heard all of the story, Mrs. Lang excused herself, took a revolver from a dresser drawer and proceeded to the home of Mrs. Copple, shooting her dead as she stood on the threshold of her own home.

Without Miss Zimmerman's "kindly" interest in the affairs of the new bride the tragedy would likely not have been enacted. Yet every day in every small town, as well as city, it is a part of the routine of the type of person of which Miss Zimmerman is the representative to carry tales—evils tales generally—about their neighbors.

Gossip is the sneaking reptile of decent and organized society. It has undermined the home life of many happy families and it has reduced bright and glorious futures to the blackest dissonance. Gossip always was an evil-doer; it will ever be. In the parlance of the gossip-monger, it is not gossip unless it assails the chastity of some pure woman or the reputation of respectable man.

Gossip scarcely ever, if ever, was accused of being the direct or even indirect cause for a crime. Miss Zimmerman, the go-between, was dragged into court, according to dispatches, and directly charged with being the immediate cause of the tragedy.

It was the fear that the wagging tongues of gossip would cause the affections of her husband for a day only to wane that prompted Mrs. Lang to take summary action. Mrs. Lang's indictment of gossip-mongers is severe enough:

"And from that time I didn't care much for life. Then a few months ago I met Joe Lang. He was so good to me, so kind and helpful that I became infatuated with him and when he asked me to marry him I could scarcely wait for the wedding day to come.

"I feared all the time that stories would be carried to my husband which would make him change his mind and maybe not marry me, and so I kept with him almost constantly and warned him away from people who might be my enemies and fill his ears with stories about me.

"Then, when we were married, I thought I would treat everybody right and maybe they would not try to degrade me to him. I invited Mrs. Copple to my house for that reason, just to try and be friends with her. She came, too, and then, when Miss Zimmerman came and told me what she was saying, I saw in a flash that others would be talking about me, how ugly I am and how he might have won a better woman than me.

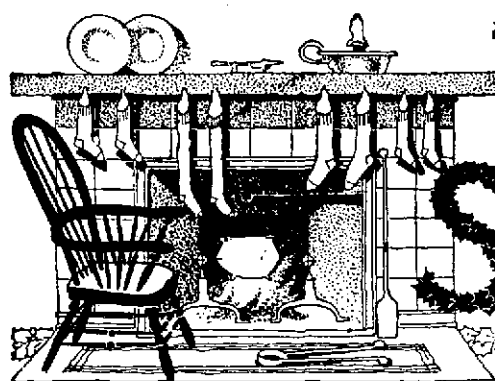

"The thought that these stories on every one's tongue might turn Joe from me made me crazy and in a passion I took the gun and went to Mrs. Copple's house and shot her. I didn't see her children stand by her. I didn't hear my father call to me. I could not see anything nor hear anything but that woman who had talked about me.

"I have had to rear myself almost. My mother and father separated when I was small and my father kept us children. A man can't rear daughters. I was headstrong, but a few years ago I met a man I wanted to marry and my father prevented it, and after that I paid scant attention to my father. Then when I met Joe Lang I wanted to wipe out the past. Right now I feel sorrier for Joe Lang than I do for myself, for he is not deserving of having this trouble and disgrace."

and is continually increasing is because we are giving our customers true value for their money. This is the one policy that is bound to build up a business and the only one that never fails. When you see our line of storm buggies and compare the quality of them with other makes on the market you will see that our buggies are far ahead of the rest in style, quality and finish and the large business we have built up by giving honest values, enables us to buy buggies in large quantities and by doing this we can buy at a price that puts us in a position to sell you buggies at a price that our competitors are unable to meet with the same class of goods. Don't buy a Storm Buggy until you have examined our line of buggies. We have the buggy you want at the price you want to pay, and if you don't get it, it won't be our fault.

AMUSEMENTS

The Princess will show for the first picture tonight a Lubin drama, "The Doctor's Debt." It is a beautiful picture telling a story that will appeal to all. The scenes are laid along the sea coast. The other picture is an Edison drama, "Olster Joe." Both are said to be exceptionally good pictures.

The fifth of the series of the Young Wild West weeklies will be shown tonight at the Palace theater. It is entitled "Young Wild West's Mix-up," or "The Silver Mine Dispute." One of this series is dramatized and reproduced by the Nestor film company every week, and one will be seen at this theater every week. Marion Leonard will appear in a Rex drama, the other picture on the program.

In "Buntz Pulls the Strings," which the Messrs. Shubert and William A. Brady announce for the first presentation at the Connersville Auditorium, Friday evening, December 6, Graham Moffat, the author, has written what critics, managers and theater-goers of London, New York and Chicago have unanimously pronounced the greatest character comedy ever given to the stage. It is full of life, while the atmosphere is so real, so subtle and so pungent with color, character and force, that the whole seems more like a bit of real life than the artistic creation of a playwright's brain. "Buntz" is a charming piece of characterwork, absolutely clean, light, vivacious and fascinating. The dressing of the play is of the period of 1860 and accurate to the minutest detail, while the superb cast of important players musters a roll of the best talented artist to be found in the leading theaters of Edinburgh and Glasgow.

FRIEGHT KILLS HORSES.

Geensburg News: Two horses, an old one and a young colt, were killed by Michigan division freight trains sometime last night while passing through Sandusky. Jacob Staniford, of that place, the owner, had turned the animals loose to graze and neglected to carral or tie them. They strayed onto the railroad track and a south bound freight killed the older one and a freight north bound meted out death to the other. The loss will be several hundred dollars.

A shower was given Friday afternoon at the home of Miss Maggie Laughlin, in honor of Miss Ruth Miles, who will be married during this month to Mr. Sherman Hill. About 35 of her girl friends were present and she received many handsome and useful presents. A good time was reported. Ice cream and cake in heart shapes were served. We sincerely hope she has a happy future before her.

State Senator Cetone the Latest Example.

Columbus, O., Dec. 5.—State Senator George K. Cetone of Dayton, was found guilty last night on a charge of accepting a $200 bribe from a Burns detective posing as a lobbyist before the general assembly in the spring of 1911.

He is the third senator to be convicted in the assembly bribery cases. Two representatives and the senate sergeant-at-arms have been convicted heretofore.

The measure involved was the Cetone-Whittmore insurance bill, and the

State charged that Cetone took the bribe to get the bill out of committee. As in other legislative corruption cases, the state successfully introduced dictograph testimony.

New Use For "Literature."

New York, Dec. 5.—Much "flowery" literature written by Julian Hawthorne in connection with the promotion of mining properties in the Temagami and Cobalt districts has been introduced in evidence by the government at the trial of Mr. Hawthorne and his three associates who are charged with using the mails to defraud.

Japanese Cabinet Crisis.

Tokio, Dec. 5.—Premier Satonji and the other members of the Japanese cabinet has resigned as a result of the crisis brought about by the difficulty of finding a successor as war minister to Lieutenant General Uyebara.

The automatic electric incubator is now hatching chicks.

NO STORY TODAY.

It was impossible to print the regular installment of the serial story, "The Root of Evil," in the Daily Republican because of the lack of space due to the rush of holiday advertising.

NOT CRAZY ENOUGH.

Muncie Press: The Indianapolis Star says that Schrank, who tried to assassinate Colonel Roosevelt during the campaign, and has been pronounced insane, was moved to his deed, nevertheless, by reading newspapers which attacked Roosevelt. The only reason he did not shoot President Taft, instead, evidently, is that he was not quite crazy enough to read the Star.

BEV'S STYLE.

Muncie Press: It has pleased Senator Beveridge frequently during the past four years to talk of the "repudiation" of James E. Watson by the people of Indiana at the election of 1904. At the election of 1912 Senator Beveridge got a little less than one-half as many votes as Mr. Watson for the same office four years before.

GETTING EVEN

Russia Prepared to Make Germany Regret Its Attitude.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 5.—The Russian press, in commenting on the recent speech of Dr. Von Bethman-Holweg in the reichstag, takes the view that the "rattling of the German sword" was discounted by the chancellor's reservations concerning the circumstances under which Germany would support Austria by force of arms. The Novoe Vremya says in referring to the Austrian acquisition of Bosnia and Herzegovina, "history repeats itself, but it is not so easy now to force Russian diplomacy into a faint-hearted retreat. Such intimidation frightens nobody. Meanwhile prudence demands the immediate withdrawal of the vast Russian deposits in German banks."

Dead Now Number Eleven.

Zanesville, O., Dec. 5.—With the death of Wilbur Ludwig, Jacob Burg and Mrs. Nellie Taylor, the toll of the Pennsylvania railway collision between passenger trains near Dresden was increased to eleven. James Bryant of Lancaster, engineer, is in the hospital here, so badly hurt he may die.

Here's Where the Fun Comes In

A woman seeking official action by the Department of Justice on a question in which she was interested became considerably confused by the franked envelope in which she received a communication from the department, according to a letter from her today. The warning, "Penalty for private use, $300," must have given her an unenviable impression. She wrote:

"I see from the envelope in which you answered my letter that you want $300 for private use. I cannot supply that large amount, but might raise $150"
